... you know we've got mad info up in huuurrr. I'm in FIG BFS btw, dealing with banks, specialty finance (think AXP, COF), some insurance and asset management.

It's not the sexiest, but its one of the hardest working, we have some of the best MD's, its quant as hell, and I love the people. Having a great time, love the analyst life just like I knew I would.

I go the gym on the 5th floor every day, started doing spin class twice a week, feel great, also dont need more than 4hours a night, I sleep in Saturdays,

Would not do well in prison, to good looking haha
